Dear Prof. Katunguka Rwakishaya,

Re: Invitation to the ICA Regional Research and Publication Training Workshop Scheduled for 24th -26th October, 2017 in Entebbe, Uganda

The ICA Africa Region (ICAfrica) with support from the International Communication Association (ICA), is organizing a three day workshop to train early career academic scholars and graduate students to focus on writing abstracts and/ research papers for submission to international conferences, peer reviewed journals, and edited books. As part of the training, there will be a keynote address and overview on contemporary research and publication in the region by the Deputy Executive Secretary of the Inter University Council for East Africa (IUCEA).

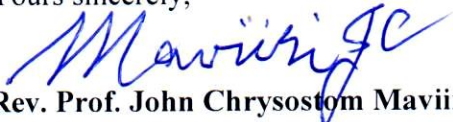

ICAfrica and the Local Organizing Committee (LOC) hereby invite your university to send academic staff and students to attend the first ICAfrica Regional Academic Training Workshop to be hosted by Uganda Martyrs University (UMU) from 24th – 26th October, 2017 at Imperial Botanical Beach Hotel Entebbe, Uganda on the theme: Growing Communication Research and Scholarship in Africa through Training and Mentorship. Registration fees are: USD 50 for students and USD 100 for staff respectively.

ICA and ICAfrica have engaged a team of over 20 widely experienced professors, seasoned senior researchers, and dedicated journal/book editors from Africa and across the globe, who will be volunteering their expertise and training services to mentor the African young scholars.

The call for Extended Abstracts/Research Proposals is from 15th July to 15th August 2017, submitted through this link: <http://www.ica hdq.org?page=ICAfricaWorkshop>
